LGBTQ FRIENDLY FAITH COMMUNITIES

TransFaith Online: TransFaith is a national non-profit that is led by transgender people and focused on issues of faith and spirituality. They work closely with many allied organizations, secular, spiritual, and religious, transgender-led and otherwise. www.transfaithonline.org

CHRISTIAN CONGREGATIONS FOR ALL: If you are looking for a congregation in your faith that is for EVERYONE, then try www.GayChurch.org. You can enter a town or zip code in the search tab and the religion that you are interested in to find what “open” churches exist in your area. You can then check the church’s website to see who is welcome.

STRING OF PEARLS (Jewish Reconstructionist Congregation of Princeton) located at 601 Ewing St., Princeton, NJ. Welcomes all people including LGBT and gender variant. Check website for info on Jewish Reconstructionism. You may contact Rabbi Elinor Knepler at: rabbi@stringofpearlsweb.org

THE REFORMED CHURCH OF HIGHLAND PARK

19 S. Second St., Highland Park, NJ

The following is taken from their website:

“The Reformed Church of Highland Park laments the decision of the 2012 General Synod of the Reformed Church in America which said that homosexuality is a sin. (<https://www.rca.org/Page.aspx?pid=8529> ) As we study Scripture, encounter the redeeming love of Jesus Christ and follow the Spirit, we do not believe homosexuality to be a sin. Rather, we experience God’s great love for ALL people, homosexual and heterosexual alike. We reaffirm our commitment to being an open and affirming community of faith, we pray for all who have been hurt by this action of the General Synod and we continue to work for God’s justice here in our midst.” -RCHP Consistory, June 27, 2012

OTHER RESOURCES FOR LGBTQ AND ALLIES

PFLAG National

The national group has many resources including pamphlets on many LGBTQ issues. For their bookstore, click on Shop PFLAG, then, BOOKSTORE

IPG (Interpersonal Growth)

www.ipgcounseling.com

A comprehensive resource guide for trans people is available to download and print for free. Click on Resource Guide for Transpeople and look in the text for where to click to download the guide. Also, there is a blog by Margie Nichols that is another nice resource of information.

KITESTRING

www.kitestring.io/

This FREE service is a safety check-in feature that can be used on any type of cell phone without having to download an app. It checks up on you via text message when you are out and alerts your friends if you don't respond.

GLMA: This is a terrific website that is comprised of health professionals advancing LGBT Equality. It is a resource for everyone: LGBT people themselves, families and friends, providers, students and trainees, continuing education, publications, etc. It lists LGBT friendly health providers anywhere in the United States. It also lists centers for LGBT services. (I discovered this when I was searching for a better price on testosterone.) They also have information about advocacy and a Lesbian Health Fund.
